

HUMAN AFFAIRS
Postdisciplinary Humanities & Social Sciences Quarterly
De Gruyter, Berlin

VOLUME 29

NUMBER 3 July 2019

Theme

HUMAN RIGHTS TODAY: A DIVERSE DEBATE FROM EUROPEAN AND BRAZILIAN PERSPECTIVES

Introductory
ALESSANDRO PINZANI

The dignity approach to human rights and the 'impaired autonomy' objection
LUIGI CARANTI

Overcoming the motivational gap: A preliminary path to rethinking the issue about intergenerational justice
ALBERTO PIRNI

Human rights, reciprocal recognition and the state. A Durkheimian contribution
LUIZ GUSTAVO DA CUNHA DE SOUZA

Feminist reformulations of human rights
MILENE CONSENSO TONETTO

The grammar of rights and the grammar of needs
ALESSANDRO PINZANI

ARTICLE

Promoting pro-environmental behaviour through augmented reality and persuasive informational power: A pilot study
STEFANIA FANTINELLI

BOOK REVIEW

Emotions in the media: A paradigm shift in thinking about public debate
ANNA SÁMELOVÁ