WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

9:00-10:30

Monday, 11 November 2019

Opening Remarks
Ondřej Beránek (Oriental Institute, CAS, Director)

The Fight for the Nation: Young Turk and Hamidian Religious Discourse in the Formulation of Ottomanism as Proto-nationalism
Stefano Taglia (Oriental Institute, CAS)

Gender, Piety and Charity in the Late Ottoman Empire
Ebru Akcasu (Dept. of Middle Eastern Studies, Charles University)

The Shah's Attitude towards Islam. From White Revolution to Revolutionary Islam
Olmo Götz (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg)

11:00-12:35

Religion, State and Nationalism in the Early Israeli Polity
Jan Zouplna (Oriental Institute, CAS)

From Saving Buddhism from (Corrupt) Buddhists to Preserving Buddhism from Islam: The Relationship Between Religion and 'National' Identity in Precolonial & Postcolonial Myanmar
Michael Charney (SOAS, University of London)

A Hindu Nationalist Republic? India in the 21st Century
Sumantra Bose (LSE, University of London)

'Moral Governance' and the Making of the Bangsamoro Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao
Rosa Cordillera Castillo (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)
Advocating Zakat: Legal Reform and Contest in 21st Century Indonesia
Kostas Retsikas (SOAS, University of London)

Citizen Martyrs: The Afghan Fatemiyoun Brigade in Iran
Kevin Schwartz (Oriental Institute, CAS)

Moderation in Ideology, Immoderation in Tactics: The Hybrid Transformation of the pro-Kurdish Parties in Turkey
Pelin Ayan-Musil (Anglo-American University, Prague)

Closing Remarks and General Discussion