

The Oriental Institute of the Czech Academy of Sciences
& the Prague Platform for Southeast Asian Studies

cordially invite you to an international seminar

“Indonesia – an Emerging Middle Power and Partner of the EU in the Indo-Pacific”

Time and date: 2 – 5 p.m., 7 December 2022

Venue: Czech Academy of Sciences, Národní 3, Praha 1, lecture hall 108

Chair: Tomáš Petrů (Oriental Institute CAS)

Speakers:

MARK PHILIP STADLER (University of Copenhagen)

Indonesia in a Changing World: The Rise of a Global Middle Power from the ‘Murky Seas’ of the Indo-Pacific

AMANDA THO SEETH (German Institute for Global and Area Studies/GIGA), Hamburg

A Rising Islamic Middle Power? The Interaction of Islam, Diplomacy and Soft Power in Indonesia

DEFNY HOLIDIN (Universität Osnabrück/Universitas Indonesia)

Bring Democratic Governance Back In: Coping with Indonesia’s Ambivalent “Bebas-Aktif” Policy in Southeast Asian Political-Security Cooperation

Admission free.

Reservations at petru@orient.cas.cz.